

After observing the training points (red), we have a nugget-band around the observed points.
( $k(x, x')$  is the squared exponential)